Finally objects tending to the metaphysical – desolation haggis; the canny man's haggis; haggis not so good or bad as one imagines; haggis made much of caught young; unsung haggis; haggis not of this fold; haggis dimm'd by superstition; perfectly intuited haggis; haggis beyond the shadow of a doubt; bantering haggis; haggis given up for Lent; haggis given up for lost; haggis so good you think you died and went to heaven; haggis supreme; haggis unchained.
